Portland, OR 97204

Attention: Cece L. Coleman
Assistant General Counsel

Reference: Revisions to Attachment K

Dear Ms. Coleman:

On October 12, 2017, Portland General Electric Company (Portland General) filed revisions to its Open Access Transmission Tariff (OATT) Attachment K (Transmission Planning Process). The proposed revisions reflect modifications to Portland General's transmission planning process as part of the Northern Tier Transmission Group (NTTG).<sup>1</sup> Specifically, the proposed revisions omit provisions and references to the Interconnection-Wide Planning Process, and include other miscellaneous clarifying edits. Portland General's revisions are accepted for filing effective December 12, 2017, as requested.<sup>2</sup>

This filing was noticed on October 12, 2017, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before November 2, 2017. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against Portland General.

This action is taken pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation- West, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Steve P. Rodgers, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation – West
